

Santa Fe River at Worthington Springs (WORF1)

Flood Stage and Impact Changes

	Current Levels	New Stages
Action Stage	56 feet	56 feet
Minor Flood Stage	58 feet	59 feet
Moderate Flood Stage	62 feet	62 feet
Major Flood Stage	64 feet	64 feet

Summary Information:

A slight adjustment to the minor flood stage has been made. Updates to the impact statements have been completed following a review of impacts during Hurricane Irma.

Impact Statements:

75 ft Water reaches the approach to the State Road 121 bridge in Alachua County just north of NW 290 Avenue.

73.6 ft Water reaches the base of the State Road 121 bridge on the Alachua and Union County sides. The road is subject to closure above this level.

72 ft The County Road 241 bridge at the Alachua/Union County line is subject to closure above this level.

71.5 ft Water begins to flood travel lanes of State Road 121 about one quarter mile south of the bridge on the Alachua County side.

70 ft Additional structures on Southwest 99th avenue in Union County flood.

67 ft A home east of Southwest 102nd avenue near 103rd loop in Union County begins to flood.

64 ft Significant flooding begins along the river in Union County. Two homes on SW 99th avenue begin to flood. Structures south of County Road 18 near Southwest 87th Court begin to flood.

63 ft A residence on SW 69th loop in Union County begins to flood.

62 ft In Union County, SW 69th loop begins to flood. Flooding expands across farm land south of County Road 18 and approaches the road surface about 1 mile east of SW County Road 241.

61 ft Southwest 99th avenue in Union County begins to flood, restricting access to homes near the river.

60 ft Flooding expands to include other low lying roads, boat ramps, docks and campgrounds in the area.

59 ft Chastain-Seay Park in Worthington Springs is generally closed to the public as access roads within the park become flooded.

58 ft Picnic areas and campsites at Chastain-Seay Park in Worthington Springs begin to flood.

56 ft The boat ramp and floating dock at Chastain-Seay Park in Worthington Springs begin to flood.