

County Impacts Associated with Hurricane Debby (2024)

Narratives listed in alphabetical order by Georgia county.

Updates:

- [08/11/2024] - Initial issuance.

|   |                |                                       |                      |
|---|----------------|---------------------------------------|----------------------|
| County NameEmanuel   | Injuries:0 | Fatalities:0 direct0 indirect | Evacuations:None |
| Edenfield Rd (between Highway 1 and Bluebird Rd) was closed due to flood waters from Jacks Creek. |                |                                       |                      |

|   |                |                                       |                      |
|---|----------------|---------------------------------------|----------------------|
| County NameMontgomery  | Injuries:0 | Fatalities:0 direct0 indirect | Evacuations:None |
| A portion of Adam road (between Dead River Rd and S Old River Rd) was closed due to flooding. Eddie Clyde road was also washed out due to flooding. |                |                                       |                      |

|  |                |                                       |                      |
|--|----------------|---------------------------------------|----------------------|
| County NameToombs   | Injuries:0 | Fatalities:0 direct0 indirect | Evacuations:None |
| Portions of Ernest Webber Rd were washed out. Both ends of Jeff Webber Rd (3 miles SE of Johnson Corner) were washed out. Zigman Whonic Rd and Hammonds Church Rd were washed out. The road was washed out near the intersection of Providence Church Rd and B A Darley Rd. A portion of Dasher St. was washed out. Flooding was reported on George Davis Rd near Millikin Creek. Flooding was reported on Thompson Pond Rd near N Thompson Church Rd near Swift Creek. The road was washed out near the intersection of Cadillac Dr and Scott Dr. A portion of Harden Chapel Rd (in the area of Remer Hackle Rd and Betty Ziegler Rd, 2 miles east of South Thompson, GA) was washed out. |                |                                       |                      |