Subject: Updated: Removal of Redbook Graphics, GIF images, Fax Charts, AFOS Products and Bulletins: Effective December 30, 2019

Updated the link for list of headers removed. The new link has an additional seven headers being removed.

Effective on or about Monday, December 30, 2019, at 1200 Coordinated Universal Time (UTC), the National Centers for Environmental Prediction (NCEP) will remove certain Redbook graphics, FAX charts, Buoy Bulletins, and Automation of Field Operations and Services (AFOS) from its suite of post-processed products from real-time observations.

The products slated for removal are comprised of Redbook graphics, FAX charts, bulletins and AFOS products produced from the hourly suite.

These products will be removed from NWS Web Services, NOAAPort and the Global Telecommunications System (GTS).
