

DOH Science Steering Team

GOAL:

As a collective body, influence the direction and development of the NWS Hydrologic Science Program. A conduit of our ideas into the hydrologic program.

DOH Science Steering Team

Objectives:

Communicate new, ongoing, and proposed projects

Involvement at the onset of the design and development phase

Review science and systems prior to implementation.

Insure program meets “national or local” science requirements

Sounding Board for National Program Developers

Provide input to Hydrologic management

Involve regional SSD and HSD

DOH Science Steering Team

Structure:

Informal Team
- No Charter

All 13 DOHs

Team facilitator selected from the DOHs
- Liaison with team, management, and the developers

RFC Development Manager (Donna Page)

Hydrology Senior Scientist (Pedro Restrepo)

